Can Tinturé Museum

Guided visit to the Museum of Ceramics "La Rajoleta"

The site of the former ceramic factory "Hijos de Jaime Pujol i Bausis", has been hosting since 2002 the "La Rajoleta" ceramic museum.

The visit introduces us to the history and beginnings of the history and production of the ceramic factory "Pujol i Bausis" which during Modernism acquired a very important role of reference.

Thanks to the wealth of its furnaces allows us to take a tour of the technical evolution of the ceramic of 1850, since in the same enclosure we find six different typologies of ovens, some of which stand out for their spectacularity as the kilns of the bottle Or English or buried Arab furnaces.

Sunday 4 June, at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Museum of Ceramics "La Rajoleta" (Meeting point Museum Can Tinturé)

The Nolla Legacy. 150 Years of Mosaic Factory
